Traditional Mastery: Deg & Bhapka

Our artisanal foundation lies in the traditional "Deg & Bhapka" distillation process. This age-old method, passed down through generations, gently extracts delicate botanical essences, preserving the full spectrum of their natural aroma and therapeutic properties.

Modern Innovation: Advanced Techniques

Complementing our heritage, we employ advanced extraction technologies including state-of-the-art steam distillation and solvent extraction methods. These modern approaches ensure maximum yield, consistency, and adherence to global quality benchmarks for diverse applications.
